

K-LOVE radio fills a need in my community. If it were taken off the air many people would lose a source of encouragement & hope. The public has a right to hope in their daily lives. It is positive and upbeat. I do not have to worry what my children will hear when it is on.